

2023 Inspection Period/Appeals Instructions

The state of Kentucky requires that properties be assessed at 100% of their fair market value which is the money an unobligated buyer would pay for the property.

Step One: A request form by class type (Residential, Agricultural, or Commercial) must be filled out to initiate a conference.

Step Two: Supporting documentation is REQUIRED when requesting a conference with the PVA. If you are submitting and appeal by email, links to external document sources, such as Google Docs, are not accepted. Documentation must be attached directly to the email. This may require multiple emails to submit all documentation.

Examples of documentation are as follows:

FOR RESIDENTIAL AND AGRICULTURAL PROPERTIES:

- Recent Appraisal – An appraisal with a date no earlier than January 1, 2022 by a licensed appraiser, including appraisals done for refinancing purposes (At a minimum the first 5 pages).
- Comparable Real Estate Sales - Recent sales in close proximity to your home with similar characteristics. For example; design, style, size, and age. Foreclosures or Lender Owned properties ARE NOT considered valid sales. Other Assessments WILL NOT be accepted.
- Comparative Market Analysis (CMA) performed by a realtor
- Current realtor listings in your subdivision or immediate area
- If you have remodeled or rehabbed your property; receipts showing costs of improvements.
- Authorization letter, if you are representing the current owner
- Active Homeowners Insurance Policy
- Any additional documentation you feel would be helpful in determining the assessment of your property including photos.

FOR COMMERCIAL PROPERTIES:

- Recent Appraisal – An appraisal with a date no earlier than January 1, 2022, by a certified Commercial Appraiser (The entire Appraisal).
- Rent Roll, if applicable
- Income and Expense Statement
- Pro Forma Analysis Worksheet
- Comparable Real Estate Sales

COMMERCIAL PROPERTIES Continued:

- Estimated cost of construction or replacement cost
- Construction Cost for new construction or improvements
- Authorization letter (LOA), if you are representing the property owner
- Any additional documentation you feel would be helpful in determining the assessment of your property including photos.

Step Three: Submit Request form and all documentation to the PVA Office.
